Bachelor of Science: Medical Laboratory Science

College of Medicine, University of Lagos

♣ Hobbies: Coding, Singing, Watching movies and Sleeping

I love coding, because it is literally the only thing I feel enthusiastic about in life and it gives me so much joy and peace of mind. I have always loved sleeping even before I found out about web development, it makes me run away from reality. Watching movies is just beautiful, it is another means of running away from reality and I sing whenever I am in the mood.
